

GET TO KNOW OWEN SOUND

38 MINS FROM THORNBURY | 1 HR FROM COLLINGWOOD | 2.5 HRS FROM TORONTO

In Owen Sound, you are never far from water – rivers and waterfalls, bays and beaches, and the harbour that is the city's namesake. Pick your passion and dive in for some great boating, fishing, waterfalls, swimming, paddling, or beaches. This city is the perfect destination to explore the natural beauty of Ontario while experiencing authentic food, culture, arts, and entertainment.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Inglis Falls – An 18 metre high cascade, created by the Sydenham River meeting the edge of the Niagara Escarpment.

Jones Falls and Pottawatomi – A 293 acre conservation area including trails through a beautiful hardwood forest with mossy rocks and a stunning view of the 12 meter high Jones Falls.

Kelso Beach Park – A beach, a park, a festival site and local history all in one on the shores of Georgian Bay.

Harrison Park – More than 40 hectares of streams, trails, gardens, playgrounds, and forests.

Bruce Trail - The longest and oldest footpath in the country – 900 km from Niagara to Tobermory.

Tom Thomson Trail – Three-season trail between Owen Sound and Meaford.

PLACES TO VISIT

Coffin Ridge Winery – Preview wines, ciders and food at Grey County's first winery.

Mudtown Station Restaurant and Brewery – Offers a meeting place in the east harbour of Owen Sound that celebrates both the history of the city and the talents of present-day residents. Food made entirely from scratch, produced with local ingredients, paired with the best the area has to offer in craft beer sets the stage for a great time.

Owen Sound Farmer's Market – Operating in the same location since 1936, in the heart of Owen Sound's River District, the Farmer's Market is open Saturdays from 8:00am to 12:30pm year round.

Grey's Boot & Blade – There aren't many restaurants where you'll see old-timers enjoying their coffee-club seated next to hungry teenagers fueling up before exams, with their parents at the next table chatting about the latest scores. The Boot & Blade is truly a multi-generational meeting and eating place.
